

TRULY DIVINE

Set in an ancient Greek sanctuary, Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas indulges its guests with modern luxuries

There's no other place like this in the world. Nafplia Palace sits amidst the remains of an ancient fortification: Akronafplia. At its feet lies Nafplion, once known as Nauplia, the pearl of the Peloponnese. A town of picturesque charm, founded by Poseidon's son, by all mythological accounts. The route through glorious alleyways and by lift up to the fortress is an experience in itself. What hotel, what resort can compare to this?

From its rooms, suites, pools and terraces, the view sweeps out over the bay and the craggy mountains. A tiny island with an ancient intact castle catches the gaze - especially at night with its shimmering floodlit walls. Surrounded by bougainvillea, Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas offers its guests recognised cultural heritage treasures right at their fingertips.

But it's not just the gods who love this place. Guests at this recently renovated resort can enjoy a luxury that Poseidon could only dream of. Thirty-three individually designed villas satisfy even the most demanding traveller: for example with their high-tech equipment and Dolby Surround home cinema - or with bathrooms as spacious as a suite itself. Stone or wood interiors harmonise with the soft cotton, leather or wool fabrics. Sixteen villas come with heated private pools or outdoor Jacuzzis.

And beyond the living areas only the finest is on offer: like the infinity pool and typically Greek kafenion with heavenly panorama. Or the beach at the foot of the headland; or the Italian restaurant with award-winning cuisine; or the state-of-the-art exclusive Nafplia spa and fitness centre. This is pure luxury - amidst ancient culture!
