NAFPLIA PALACE HOTEL & VILLAS

On a peninsula south of Athens, a majestic view of three castles—Palamidi, Akronafplia, and Bourtzi—signals your arrival in the city of Nafplia. Legend has it that the mythical king Theseas created the first organized city in Akronafplia, and in the 3rd century B.C. the Romans and Venetians built the magnificent fortress on the site where the luxurious Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas is now located. Make Nafplia your base as you discover extraordinary Peloponnesian sites nearby, such as the ruins of the ancient city of Mycenae, the classical theater Epidauros, and the Nemea Vineyards. The exquisite Hydra and Spetses islands are easily accessible by boat, and excursions can be arranged at the hotel.

The hotel's stunning hilltop location provides panoramic views of the sea, the Old Town of Nafplio, the Palamidi Castle, and the Bourtzi Isle. Guests who stay in the hotel's newly renovated bungalow wing will get the full VIP treatment: Each accommodation has its own ultra-chic style and design, and the amenities are fit for royalty, with a VIP reception area and lounge, private limousine and helicopter and butler service, and a wide range of exceptional dining facilities, including the award-winning Amimoni restaurant. Sun-drenched Arvanitia Beach is within walking distance. With all of these luxuries in close proximity, the Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas has earned its reputation as one of the most memorable places to stay in Greece.
