

ANCIENT AND MODERN

NAFPLIA PALACE HOTEL & VILLAS OFFERS STATE-OF-THE-ART PAMPERING IN HISTORICAL SURROUNDINGS

The city of Nafplia, just an hour and a half by car from Athens, was the first capital of ancient Greece. Here you will find a treasure trove of Greek history and situated within these ancient ruins, the state-of-the-art Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas.

As a pampering palace, it has it all – villas with private pools, chic boutique-style rooms, cool marble floors and a surround-sound home cinema. The bathrooms boast Hèrmes products, hydro-jets and chromotherapy bathtubs and in the hammam, a wide array of soothing, revitalising and energising treatments await the sybarite.

As you lie by the pool gazing out over the Aegean that seems like a vast blue canvas, all around you is the ancient fortress of Akronafplia, among whose ruins the hotel was built. This is a wonderful base for exploring the extraordinary Peloponnesian sites nearby – the ancient city of Mycenae and the Nemea Vineyards, amongst many other historical jewels. After a morning discovering rare archaeological sites, what better way to spend the afternoon than enjoying a chilled glass of champagne and some shared meze in the stylish surroundings of Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas.

There's plenty more to occupy you other than sight-seeing. The pretty harbour town of Nafplia can be accessed by one of three lifts at the hotel and here you can wander round the pretty boutiques, tavernas and cafés that are sprinkled along the water's edge. The hotel-managed Arvanitia beach with its restaurant and bar are also just a short stroll away.

The wonderful juxtaposition of ancient and modern makes Nafplia Palace Hotel & Villas a very special holiday destination.
